

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LogBuy enhances benefits offering with Restaurant discounts nationwide

Today, leading benefits provider LogBuy are pleased to announce an expansion to their successful voluntary benefits offering to include discounts from a wide range of national chain and local, independent Restaurants.

Through the partnership with Europe's largest reservations service for the restaurant industry Livebookings, LogBuy will provide employees with access to competitive discounts from a current choice of over 100 restaurants. Through the integration between both LogBuy's and Livebookings online platform, employees can book the restaurant of their choice online and receive a discount of up to 50% through the LogBuy programme. The portfolio of restaurants offered is also being increased on a daily basis.

David Wall, Managing Director LogBuy comments:

"I am thrilled to announce the partnership between LogBuy and Livebookings. The partnership opens up the opportunity to add extra value to our existing benefits offering to employees, by providing them access to great discounts from their local restaurants and bars."

Peter Clack, Network Partnerships Manager, UK and Ireland Livebookings comments:

"Livebookings is pleased to be working in partnership with one of Europe's leading employee benefit providers. Many of the restaurants that we work with are regularly running great deals – by passing these on to LogBuy customers, we hope to provide yet another valuable benefit to their package."

LogBuy, the leading benefits provider in northern Europe currently provides solutions for over 400 companies. With a unique modular approach and a future of possibilities, LogBuy offers staff access to 'best-in-class' negotiated discounts from leading brands and local retailers nationwide. Recently launched in the UK, LogBuy has already proved successful with Volkswagen Financial Services, The Big Lottery Fund and InBev UK who are just a few of the latest customers to appoint LogBuy as their benefits provider of choice in the UK.

ENDS

For further information contact:

Sarah Smith, LogBuy

(01908) 698921

ss@logbuy.eu

www.logbuy.co.uk